LOST LUGGAGE

Airplanes land in the background as you attempt to retrieve your luggage from the airport carousel. It suddenly goes amok, throwing off suitcases which you try to catch using the Joystick Controller. If you fail to catch the luggage, it will burst open, spilling out your unmentionables. As the game advances, the torrent of suitcases descending upon you multiplies.

THE SET-UP

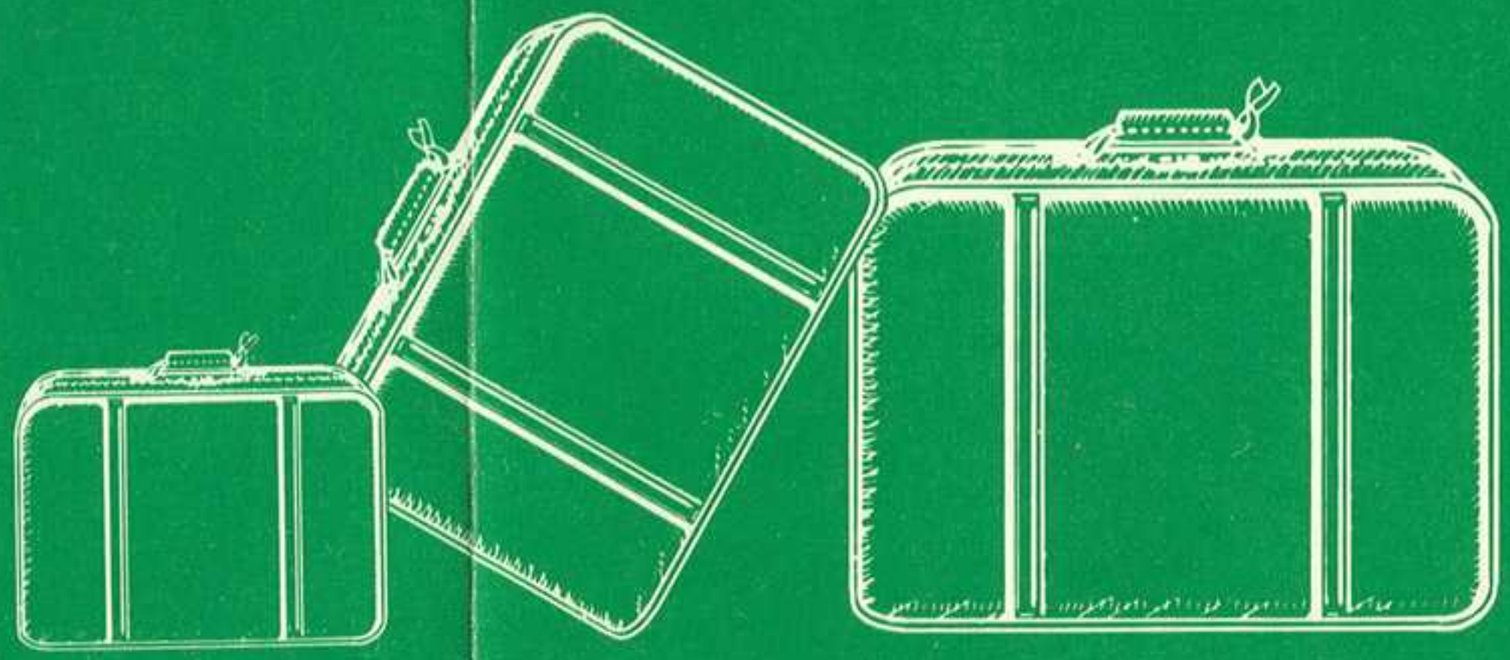
Lost Luggage™ is played with one or two players using the Joystick Controller. Be sure the power is off when you insert or remove the Lost Luggage™ cartridge from your video game system.

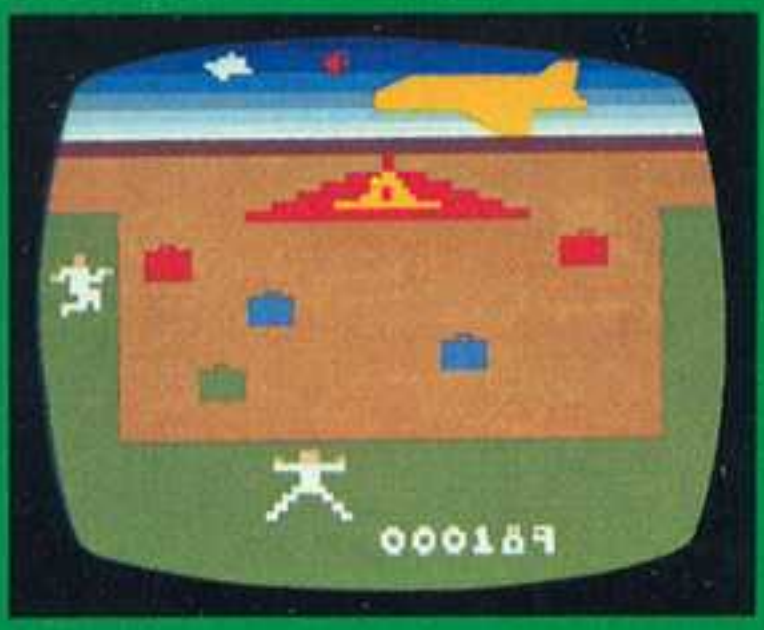
THE DIFFICULTY SWITCH

The difficulty switch controls the number of men you have catching suitcases. Placing the switch in the "B" position will give you two suitcase-catchers, while in the more difficult "A" mode, only one man tries to keep your unmentionables from being scattered about the floor.

THE JOYSTICK CONTROLLER

Hold your Joystick Controller so that the red "FIRE" button is in the upper left-hand corner. Use this button to start the game. Use your joystick to move your man (or men) in all eight directions around the baggage claim area.





SCORING

You initially receive four points for each suitcase you catch, but after each wave of suitcases, the difficulty increases and point value for each suitcase increases by one point.

LUGGAGE ALLOTMENT

You start the game with three suitcases already claimed and placed at the bottom of your screen on the left as the carousel goes amok. Every time you miss one of the suitcases thrown off the carousel, you lose one of your already claimed bags. When the last one is gone, or when you miss a terrorist suitcase, the game is over.

OPTIONS

In the two player option, players alternate with each wave. In the suitcase control option, the players control the direction the suitcases are thrown during their opponent's turn by moving their joysticks. In the terrorist suitcase option, there are random black terrorist suitcases among the baggage showering down upon you. If any of them strike the floor, your game ends immediately and explosively.
